

Prepis govora

Madam President, dear commissioners, dear colleagues,

It seems that we are waiting for the war in Ukraine to end on its own, or for Trump or the Pope to bring it to an end. None of this has happened.

The war will end when Putin realises that he has nothing to gain on the battlefield. That is the reason for our unwavering support for Ukraine. Our support for Ukraine is the path to peace.

History teaches us a clear lesson: an aggressor does not stop by choice, but only when confronted with limits. The unity of this House is more important today than ever. Europe is stronger when we stand together. Our response must be clear: Putin will not stop on his own. Only together we can stop him.

Slovenski prevod

Gospa predsednica, komisarja, dragi kolegi.

Zdi se, da čakamo, da se vojna v Ukrajini konča sama po sebi, ali da jo konča predsednik Trump ali papež. Nič od tega se ni zgodilo. Vojna bo končana, ko Putin spozna, da na bojišču nima kaj pridobiti. To je razlog za našo trdno podporo Ukrajini, naša podpora je pot k miru. Zgodovina nas uči: agresor se ne ustavi sam, ampak le ob soočenju z mejami. Enotnost te hiše je danes pomembnejša kot kdaj koli. Evropa je močnejša, ko stojimo skupaj. Naš odziv mora biti jassen: Putin se ne bo ustavil sam. Le skupaj ga lahko ustavimo.
